ASPIRING LEADERS DAY

Proudly brought to you by the VPA

WANT AN INSIGHT INTO SCHOOL LEADERSHIP?

What is principalship?

You are invited to the 2018 VPA Aspiring Leaders Day. Here, you will gain insight into the key qualities of successful educational leaders. Learn how your own leadership skills can impact on individuals and teams to drive change in your school.

Keynote Speaker Rachael Robertson

As one of the youngest women to ever lead a team to Antarctica, Rachael Robertson has more than 20-years' experience leading teams in complex and challenging environments. In her keynote address, The Future of Teamwork, Rachael shares the practical tools she uses to create team cohesion, purpose and resilience. Sarah Richardson, Senior Project Officer in AITSL's School Leadership Team, will then use her experience as a principal to discuss school leadership development. Jane Hancock-Greig and Deb Crane will follow with a presentation of BLIS – a program aimed at developing your leadership style. The day will conclude with a Q&A session led by beginning and experienced principals, allowing you to share in their knowledge and build the necessary skills to lead with success.

Speak to your Principal to get involved!

With special thanks to Bank First, VPA Aspiring Leaders Day supporter and valued VPA Business Partner.
